- The number of single women versus men has risen to epidemic proportions. Research has shown that women are far more likely to seek help overcoming current relationship issues, or the frustration of not being able to find the 'right' Mr Right. This e-course provides potent, actionable steps for those who're ready to create positive change.
- MONEY is the number one cause of relationship issues, and in today's troubled economy, frail relationships are experiencing extraordinary stress. Fiona addresses these financial conflicts, helping readers understand their money values and delivers out-of-the-box thinking that sets both your relationship and wealth free.

Fiona created this 16-week e-course based on the powerful concepts and actions steps outlined in her book, 'Shopping List for Life'. Like her book, the affordably priced e-course helps peel back the layers and discover what's stopping you from having the loving, lasting relationship of your dreams.

Fiona's found that using a shopping list in your love-life is a key factor in obtaining the relationship of your dreams. But a shopping love-list alone isn't enough; the keys are all 16 secret ingredients contained in this program. With this approach, people have successfully implemented the techniques made popular in 'The Secret'.

Andrea Says...

After initial coaching using Shopping List for Love Program:

'I realized that I'd lost myself within my long term relationship, and with its breakdown came a sense of 'what now' and 'how will I cope'? Fiona helped me to identify why my relationship ended and together we worked through a number of issues. Whilst a previous relationship took more than a year to fully get over, the time it has taken me to 'get back out there' has been greatly reduced thanks to her expert coaching.

My love life is back on track and I've met a wonderful partner who ticks all of the boxes I wrote down. I did actually write them down: same age, independent, intelligent, confident, social with lots of friends and interests.

It's amazing what a difference the coaching has made!

Dianne Says...

"I am grateful for the work that Fiona does. Since attending Fiona's programs and coaching I have learnt so much more about myself and what I truly want. I have also learnt why I have in the past, attracted the people that I did. Now in my present and future I am so excited and confident about attracting the man of my dreams, the very one who is right for me.

Now, I can actually dream the real true dreams that inspire me, like I'm actually allowed to believe in them for real! I also wanted to add a big thank you for your words of encouragement! I've gotta say it makes a huge difference having someone that fully believes in me and is so supportive! Maybe that's the whole point of doing what you do!, but it means a lot to me that I have this, not only when things get challenging but just knowing someone I know really cares about me doing my best!

Thank you!

Dianne - Wellington, New Zealand

Paula Says...

Fiona was a very positive and motivating support person in my life during a very unsure and stressful period. She helped me face my fear and keep going by helping change the negative self-talk and beliefs that were keeping me stuck. I found the courage to move through this difficult time and Fiona was an integral part in helping me achieve my goal. I look forward to continuing to work with Fiona as she supports me on my journey.
